

DOMINICAN LIFE USA

A web crossroads for the Order of Preachers

Photo of the Week: Dominican Sisters of Caldwell - Water Protectors Unite

'Dominican Sisters of Blauvelt Stand with Muslims, Refugees, and Immigrants'

In February 2017 the Dominican Sisters of Blauvelt “closed their weekend Chapter meeting with a demonstration of solidarity by the sisters and associates with our Muslim, Immigrant, and Refugee sisters and brothers.” Since 2011 the Dominican Sisters of Blauvelt, in collaboration with the Dominican Sisters of Amityville, Caldwell, Hope and Sparkill, have been “committed to support a comprehensive and compassionate immigration law that recognizes the human situation of separated families and the oppressive living conditions that force people to migrate.”

Read article

Dominican Sisters of Sinsinawa: 'Dubuque's Got Sisters!'

From Friday, March 17 to Saturday, March 18 please join the Dominican sisters for an inside look at religious life. “Dubuque's Got Sisters,” is an event for “those interested in exploring a call to become a religious Sister. Dubuque-area Sisters will accompany participants and share experiences through praying, dining, and storytelling.”

Read more

Dominican Sisters of Springfield - 'Brown Bag Seminars: A Successful, Constructive Approach to Community Engagement'

“The Dominican Sisters of Springfield hosted a successful series of lunch-time seminars as an antidote to the divisive tone of civic discourse that has occupied much of our public space since the 2016 presidential election.” The series “provided primers on building anti-racist institutions; organizing action in response to climate change; and engaging in contemplative dialogue.”

Read more

Dominican Institute for the Arts Winter 2017 Newsletter

Read the latest news from the Dominican Institute for the Arts (DIA) and learn more about this year’s DIA Gathering in July 2017.

Read more

Get to Know the Dominican Sisters of Adrian during National Catholic Sisters Week

“In conjunction with National Catholic Sisters Week (NCSW), March 8-14, 2017, the Adrian Dominican Sisters invite the public to a special event, ‘Getting to Know the Sisters,’ on Saturday, March 11, 2017, at the Adrian Dominican Sisters’ Motherhouse.”

Read more

Dominican Sisters of Amityville: 'Sister Lenore Toscano, OP to Be Honored as Woman of Distinction'

On March 3, 2017, Amityville Dominican Sister Lenore Toscano, OP was honored as a woman of distinction at Dominican Village in Amityville. “Sister Lenore is the Executive Director of the OPening Word program which teaches the English language and job readiness skills to immigrant women at three sites: Wyandanch, Huntington and Amityville.”

Read more

Dominican Sisters of Mission San Jose 'Demonstrate Care of Creation Protecting Habitat and Motorist Safety on California Highway'

The Dominican Sisters of Mission San Jose and the Land Trust of Santa Cruz County finalized an environmental easement to protect 173 acres of the sisters’ forested “Marywood” property, west of Highway 17, from development. The agreement protects wildlife and motorists' safety and will connect vital habitat along a busy urban highway via a planned wildlife tunnel under the roadway.

Read more

Cassie Vazquez | Editor | editor@domlife.org | Dominican Life | USA | www.domlife.org

 Share

 Share

 Share

Next issue's deadline for articles is March 20, 2017