Elias Omondi Opongo SJ, PhD, is the Director of Hekima Institute of Peace Studies & International Relations based in Nairobi, Kenya. He received his Doctorate from University of Bradford, UK in Peace and Conflict Studies. His book Peace Weavers: Methodologies of Peace Building in Africa (Pauline 2014) is used widely in Peace building circles throughout the World. The program will challenge us to examine the structures of sin within our society which affect our faith and alienate our communities. This self discovery and social engagement will engage all to discern their role in our society today. All are welcome!

Registration Fee $60; Tuition $200
