

DOMINICAN LIFE USA

A web crossroads for the Order of Preachers

Photo of the Week: Sinsinawa Dominican Sisters Quincy Howard and Nicole Reich Make First Profession of Vows

Dominican Sisters Conference Public Statement Denouncing White Supremacist Terrorist Actions in Charlottesville, VA

Please click here to find a public statement by the Dominican Sisters Conference speaking out against the supremacist terrorism in Charlottesville and links to additional public statements from Dominican congregations. The response can also be found on the DSC Facebook Page. Please share with others.

The S.H.O.P. Association Celebrates Ten Years in Fanjeaux

The S.H.O.P. (Sister Historians of the Order of Preachers) Association is celebrating its ten years presence in Fanjeaux. Please click read more to find the S.H.O.P. newsletter.

Read more

Dominican Sisters of Adrian Welcome Six New Associates

On August 5, 2017, six women were formally welcomed as Adrian Dominican Associates at a gathering in St. Catherine Chapel at the Adrian Dominican Motherhouse. The new associates are: Laurie Susie; Rev. Cathy Johnson; Joan Ebbitt; Sherry Goff; Barbara Lawrence; and Mary Sweet Rooney.

Read more

Dominican Sisters of Adrian Learn of Justice Issues in Philippines

On August 2, 2017, the Dominican Sisters of Adrian had the opportunity to learn about the justice issues facing their Sisters in the Philippines. A presentation was given by Sister Antonette Lumbang, OP, Justice Promoter for the Remedies Chapter, on three key justice issues that her nation faces.

Read more

Dominican Sister of Peace Annette Winter, OP Honored for Service

Sister Annette Winter, OP was named “Volunteer of the Year” by RSVP/VIA of Central Kansas. Sister Annette helps with several projects for Catholic Charities and helps at Heartland Farm (ecological ministry of the Dominican Sisters of Peace)—training alpacas, working with the animals, and teaches knitting and crochet classes.

Read more

New Book by Mission San Jose Dominican Sister Donna Maria Moses, O.P.

Sister Donna Maria Moses, OP’s new book, American Catholic Women Religious: Radicalized, “depicts the significant role played by American Catholic Women Religious in the broader narratives of modern American history and the history of the Catholic Church. The book is a guide to fifty foreign missions founded by Dominican and Maryknoll Sisters in the twentieth century.”

Read more

Maryknoll Sisters Celebrate Sister Paulita Hoffman, M.M.’s 103rd Birthday

“Maryknoll Sister, Sister Paulita Hoffman, M.M. celebrated her 103rd birthday on Sunday, August 13th! Sister Paulita entered the Congregation in 1933; she has been a Maryknoll Sister for 84 years! She has spent over 50 years on mission in Taiwan serving in catechetical, social and pastoral work, and helping with the formation of Christian Communities.”

Read more

Dominican Sisters of Sparkill Celebrate its Newest Centenarian

“On August 9, 2017, Dominican Sister of Sparkill Sr. Ann Louise DeGennaro celebrated her 100th birthday! A member of the Sparkill Congregation for 78 years, Sr. Ann Louise has truly lived a life in service to others.”

Read article

Next issue's deadline for articles is September 11, 2017