Keynote Speaker: Fran Belmonte :: back by popular demand!

It is four years since Theology professor Fran Belmonte addressed the Dominican artists at Adrian. But that was not the last Gathering she attended, nor has the DIA ever forgotten her impact. Although Dr. Belmonte cannot hope to match the crowd appeal of the reconciliation event to which she once attracted a crowd of 20,000, her professional credentials and personal relationships promise a keynote address rich with fresh insights. Fran's resume, including thirty years with the Kentucky Dominicans and the distinction of serving as resident theologian to a bishop—is impressive. But her profound content and provocative style are more so. Poets and literature lovers among us will recall her sharp wit, her delightfully enlightening tours through linguistics and word origins, and her soul-satisfying axioms. It is not surprising then that the Planning Commission decided to invite Fran Belmonte back to Adrian to keynote Gathering 2018 under the title: The Arts as Wholistic Preaching.

Like John Paul II, Fran embraces art as a valid source of theology. Those who attended the 2014 Gathering will remember the warm sense of affirmation they felt in their “Deep Down Smart Place” when Fran demonstrated how the artist's vision contributes to that form of revelation known as “the sense of the faithful.” Fran herself recognizes that a good speaker is first a good listener. So, as soon as she accepted the Planning Commission's invitation, Fran began to peruse the evaluations from her last keynote address to refresh her sense of the audience. We should not be surprised if this keynote speaker sounds as if she knows us almost as well as we know ourselves.

WORKSHOPS

Thursday - 1:30 - 3:00

- Lament and the Art of Rebellion with Nancyann Turner, OP

The summer of 2017 was the 50th anniversary of the racial uprising in 1967 – days of turmoil, fires, destruction and 47 deaths. Using the long biblical tradition of lament and the new energy of creativity, numerous artists began using their creativity to tell the story of the civil rights movement. This workshop will include prayer, readings, art of the civil rights movement and personal sharing of lament.

- The Art of Gourds with Judy Smith, OPA

Dominican Emblem/Shield on a Gourd Please see next page for description

- Japanese Tea Ceremony with Joseph Kilikevice, OP

Peace through a bowl of Tea ...

The simple beauty of the sound of water splashing gently into kettle, the worn look of a tea bowl that has been used in many other ceremonies, the scroll on the wall that the host has chosen to express a truth to consider, the simple flower arrangement that attempts to imitate “flowers as they appear in the field,” all contribute to a ritual meeting among people who value kindness and respect. The Japanese tea ceremony provides an alternative to our fast paced, noise filled, multi-tasking lives bringing us back to dignity, civility, respect and tranquility.

- Playing the Ukulele with Irene Mary Diones, OP

Ukulele Jamming

Learn to play and sing along traditional American folk songs, spirituals, religious, patriotic, fun or camp songs as simple as Happy Birthday or Jolly Good Fellow. Dare play non-English songs as well, how about De Colores or Aloha Oe?

- JUST BE You may want to use this time to relax or visit the many options on campus

“THE SIMPLE BEAUTY OF THE SOUND OF WATER ...

THE JAPANESE TEA CEREMONY WITH JOE KILIKEVICE

WORKSHOPS

Thursday - 3:30 - 5:00

- Act Justly, Love Tenderly and Walk Humbly with your God with Judy Engel

What is it, that links the contemplative heart of the pray-er, the critical eye of the doer of justice, and the creative energy of the artist? This workshop will explore these connections in an inter-active approach to the vocation of the artist in light of the call to, "Act justly, Love tenderly and walk humbly with your God ..."

- The Art of Gourds with Judy Smith, OPA

Dominican Emblem/Shield on a Gourd

Workshop will utilize the art of pyrography to make a decorative/useful gourd container. Our design will be the emblem/shield of your choice. To facilitate time pre-printed adhesive-backed designs of several sizes will be available.

If you have your own design please bring a copy to be traced over. Completion during the assigned time is desired but not guaranteed. AVAILABLE: Gourds, Woodburners (several), pre-printed adhesive designs (Dominican emblem)

BRING: work apron, your own woodburner [if you have one], copy of your own design.

- Creating the Saint John Bible with Barbara Cervenka, OP

The Saint John Bible is the first hand-written and illuminated bible since the invention of the printing press. Donald Johnson, world-renowned calligrapher and scribe to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, used ancient techniques, materials and tools to create this contemporary masterpiece. Using the film. The Illuminator, we will learn about these techniques and discuss how they might be applied today in our own art.

- Preparing Your Artwork for Congregational Archives with Natalie Smith and Mary Navarre, OP

Grand Rapids Archivist. Explore ways to prepare your art work for congregational archives.

Learn how to best preserve your artistic legacy by partening with your archivist. See how the archives of the Grand Rapids Dominicans are working to conserve and preserve artwork by sisters of the congregation. Consider how you want to represent your story as an artist both physically and digitally.

- INAI Tours with Suzanne Schreiber, OP

- JUST BE Take the time you need to rest - walk - explore - sleep ...
