

THOMAS BERRY:

The environmental crisis is fundamentally a spiritual crisis.

Laudato Si

In this contemplative retreat we will dive more deeply into the mystery of God who dwells in us and in all creation. Through the thoughts and spirituality of Thomas Berry we will explore the dimensions of ecozoic awareness and awakening needed for the emerging global community. Sr. Kathleen Deignan, CND, PhD, will lead us in ritual, conferences, and shared wisdom as we immerse ourselves in silence and the beauty of the natural world.

Mystic, Prophet and Guide to the Ecozoic

July 7-12, 2020

Arrival: July 7 3:00 - 5:00pm

Departure: July 12 11:00am

Franciscan Spirituality Center

609 S. Convent Road, Aston, PA 19014

Cost: $495

Kathleen Deignan, CND, PhD is the founding director of the Kathleen Deignan, CND Institute for Earth and Spirit at Iona. She was a student and mentee of Father Thomas Berry at Fordham University where she earned her doctorate in Theology. Sister Kathleen is also a founding convener of The Thomas Berry Forum for Ecological Dialogue and Composer in Residence for Schola Ministries.

Registration Form - Due ASAP, space is limited.

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone (Cell) _____ (Home) _____

Email _____

Special Dietary Needs _____

Mail registration form with $495 to Jeanne Goyette, OP, 40 Ryerson Ave. #203, Caldwell, NJ 07006

Please make checks out to Sisters of St. Dominic.

Contacts: Jeanne Goyette, OP, jgoyetteop@yahoo.com or Ann Marie Rimmer, OP, arimmer37@yahoo.com